TNBC 2026 Presidents Report: JUNE

Hi Members,

Please find my report for June 2026 below.

Finances: We've had another great month financially, with strong results continuing across the bar, gaming, and on the greens. We are currently $100,000–$150,000 above budget year-to-date, which places the club in a very healthy position.

Having now completed our only major capital works for the year with the bar and gaming area upgrade, we are focused on rebuilding cash flow over the next 12 months before moving on to our next project.

Board: Your Board is working extremely well together, alongside our Manager Craig and his staff. The club is heading in a very positive direction, and the future looks bright.

Volunteers: Once again, I would like to recognise and sincerely thank all our volunteers. Without these people, our club simply would not be where it is today.

Special acknowledgements to:

- Umpires: John Scruton & Evelyn Cogan
- Special Events: Robyn McAnelly & Daphne Reed
- Bunnings BBQ: Tony McAnelly, Noel Giles, and crew
- School Programs: Tony McAnelly and all helpers
- Friday Raffles: All raffle sellers
- Tuesday, Wednesday & Friday Competitions: Everyone who assists
- Games Controller: Dave Arnold, for the excellent job he continues to do
- Pennant Selection: Panel

To everyone listed above – and those not named – a huge thank you on behalf of all members and visitors. Your time and effort are greatly appreciated. If anyone is able to assist in any area, please don't hesitate to put your hand up – all help is genuinely appreciated.

Bar and Administration Staff: I was recently told by a visiting patron that we have the best and friendliest staff she has experienced in her many visits to clubs Australia-wide. This is a wonderful accolade for our club and a credit to our team.

Good bowling,
Dallas Furner
President

Welfare Officer – Mary Ross

We would like to give a special shout-out to Mary Ross, who does a wonderful job as our Club Welfare Officer. Mary plays an important role in looking after the wellbeing of our members, offering support, a friendly ear, and a caring presence when it's needed most. Her quiet dedication, compassion, and genuine care for our club community do not go unnoticed, and we sincerely thank Mary for the valuable contribution she makes to our club.
